

About Global Incentive

We are the only company in the Canary Islands, which specialises in organising incentives, conventions, product launches and all kinds of events.

We are a team capable of adapting and conducting programmes of activities for all kinds of groups. We are from the islands, we love our islands and we know them to perfection.

We always work with professionalism, affection and rigour that's why our service is direct, creative and expert.

An experience that enables us to ensure a seamless and efficient working environment. Capable of delivering our customers a world exclusive, elite and unique experience, designed especially for them.